SECTION 6. Emergency. It is hereby found and determined by the General Assembly that prescription drugs sold and administered by dentists are now subject to the sales and use taxes; that granting an exemption in such circumstances will to a degree reduce the tremendous financial burden patients must bear for their treatment; that this Act provides that degree of assistance and that this Act should go into effect immediately in order to help patients as soon as possible. Therefore, an emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval.
