16-84-310. Bail before conviction. Before conviction, the defendant may be admitted to bail:

- (1) for his appearance before a magistrate for an examination of the charge, where the offense charged is a misdemeanor;
- (2) for his appearance in the court to which he is sent for trial;
- (3) for his appearance to answer an indictment which has been found against him; or
- (4) for his appearance in a penal action.

16-84-311. Bail during trial. (a) During the trial of an indictment for a misdemeanor, the defendant may remain on bail.

(b) However, for a felony when a defendant is upon bail, he may remain upon bail or be kept in actual custody as the court may direct. If the defendant remains on bail, any surety's liability shall be exonerated unless the surety has agreed to remain as the surety until final judgment is rendered.

16-84-312. Entering of recognizance on court minutes. All recognizances required or authorized to be taken in any criminal proceeding, in open court, by any court of record shall be entered on the minutes of the court, and the substance thereof shall be read to the person recognized.

16-84-313. Application for bail. (a) If the defendant is committed to jail, and the application for bail is made to a magistrate, or judge of the circuit court during vacation, it must be by a written petition, signed by the defendant or his counsel, briefly stating the offense for which he is committed and naming the persons offered as surety.

(b) In all other cases, the application may be made orally to the court or magistrate.

16-84-314. Surrender of defendant. (a) (1) At any time before the forfeiture of their bond, the surety may surrender the defendant, or the defendant may surrender himself, to the jailer of the county in which the offense was committed.

(2) However, the surrender must be accompanied by a certified copy of the bail bond to be delivered to the jailer, who must detain the defendant in custody thereon as upon a commitment and give a written acknowledgment of the surrender.

(3) The surety shall thereupon be exonerated.

(b) For the purpose of surrendering the defendant, the surety may obtain from the officer having in his custody the bail bond or recognizance a certified copy thereof, and thereupon at any place in the state may arrest the defendant, or by his written endorsement thereon, authorize any person over the age of twenty-one (21) years to do so.

(c) The surety may arrest the defendant without the certified copy.

(d) If the surety has good cause for surrendering the defendant and has complied with the provisions herein in surrendering the defendant, there shall be no requirement that the surety return part or all of the premium paid for the bail bond.

16-84-315. Deposit of money in lieu of bail. Notwithstanding any rule of criminal procedure to the contrary:

(1) (A) Whenever the defendant is admitted to bail in a specified sum, he may deposit the sum with the county or city treasurer in the county or city in which the trial is directed to be had and take from the treasurer a certificate of the deposit, upon delivering which to the officer in whose custody he is, he shall be discharged.

(B) After bail has been taken, a deposit may in like manner be made of the sum mentioned in the bail bond, which shall exonerate the surety.

(2) Where money is deposited, the county treasurer shall hold and pay the money according to the orders of the court having jurisdiction to try the offense, and he and his sureties shall be liable for the money on their official bond.

(3) Upon judgment being rendered against a defendant for fine and costs, the court rendering judgment may order any money deposited agreeably to this section to be applied to the payment thereof. This subdivision shall not apply to a bail bond of a bail bondsman.

16-84-316. Recommitment after bail or deposit of money. (a) The court in which a prosecution for a public offense is pending may, by an order, direct the defendant to be arrested and committed to jail until legally discharged, after he has given bail, or deposited money in lieu thereof, in the following cases:

(1) When by having failed to appear, a forfeiture of bail or of the money deposited has been incurred;

(2) When the court is satisfied that his surety, or either of them, is dead, or insufficient, or has moved from the state;

(3) Upon an indictment being found for an offense not bailable.

(b) Upon the order being made, the clerk shall issue process for the arrest and recommitment of the defendant. If the order is made on account of either of the cases mentioned in subdivision (a) (1) or (a) (2) of this section, the defendant shall be admitted to bail as upon his first commitment, in a sum to be fixed by the court and named in the process for his arrest.

SUBCHAPTER 4.

16-84-401. Action on Bond. (a) If the defendant fails to appear for trial or judgment, or at any other time when his presence in court may be lawfully required, or to surrender himself in execution of the judgment, the court may direct the fact to be entered on the minutes, and shall issue an order requiring the surety to appear, on a date set by the court not less than ninety (90) days nor more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the issuance of the order, to show cause why the sum specified in the bail bond or the money deposited in lieu of bail should not be forfeited. The order shall also require the officer who was responsible for taking of bail to appear unless: (1) the surety is a bail bondsman; or (2) the officer accepted cash in the amount of bail.

(b) The appropriate law enforcement agencies shall make every reasonable effort to apprehend the defendant.

(c) If the defendant is surrendered, arrested or good cause is shown for his failure to appear before judgment is entered against the surety, the court shall exonerate the sum specified in the bail bond less an amount not to exceed the amount expended by the state in the apprehension or return of the defendant.

(d) If the defendant has not surrendered or been arrested prior to judgment against the surety, the bail bond or money deposited in lieu of bail may be forfeited.

16-84-402. Disposition of deposit. Where money is deposited in lieu of bail, after the forfeiture and final adjournment of the court, the treasurer shall pay the sum deposited to the credit of the school fund.

16-84-403. Certain absences excused. (a) No forfeiture of any appearance or bail bond shall be rendered in any case where a sworn statement of a licensed court-appointed physician is furnished the court showing that the principal in the bond is prevented from attending by some physical or mental disability, or where a sworn affidavit of the jailer, warden, or other responsible officer of a jail or penitentiary in which the principal is being detained shall be furnished the court, or a sworn affidavit of any officer in charge is furnished the court showing that the principal in the bond is prevented from attending due to the fact that he is being detained by a force claiming to act under the authority of the federal government which neither the state nor the surety could control.

(b) The appearance or bail bond shall remain in full force and effect until the principal is physically or mentally able to appear or until a detainer against the principal is filed with the detaining authority."

SECTION 6. All provisions of this Act of a general and permanent nature are amendatory to the Arkansas Code of 1987 Annotated and the Arkansas Code Revision Commission shall incorporate the same in the Code.

regulation of the bail bond business and bail generally are confusing and have been applied in an inconsistent manner; that there is an urgent need for the revision of laws pertaining to bail and that this Act is immediately necessary to eliminate deficiencies found in the present law. Therefore, an emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval.
