BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

"9-14-235. (a) All persons under a court order to pay child support shall continue to pay an amount equal to the child support amount after all children entitled to support reach majority, are emancipated, die, or when the obligor's current duty to pay child support otherwise ceases if a judgment or child support arrearage exists until such time as the judgment or arrearage has been satisfied.

(b) When the order of support directs an amount of support per child, as each child reaches majority, is emancipated, dies, or the obligor's current duty to pay support otherwise ceases, the obligor shall continue to pay the amount set as child support for that child if a judgment or child support arrearage exists until such time as the judgment or arrearage has been satisfied.

(c) Enforcement through income withholding, retention of unemployment benefits, workers compensation benefits, income tax intercept, additional payments ordered to be paid on judgment or child support arrearage or any other means of collection shall be available for the collection of a judgment or child support arrearage until such is satisfied.

(d) For purposes of termination of income withholding under §9-14-229(b) there shall exist a continuing support obligation until the judgment or child support arrearage has been satisfied.

(e) As used in this section "judgment" means unpaid child support, medical bills, interest, attorney fees or cost when such has been reduced to judgment by the court."

SECTION 2. All provisions of this act of a general and permanent nature are amendatory to the Arkansas Code of 1987 Annotated and the Arkansas Code Revision Commission shall incorporate the same in the Code.

SECTION 3. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.
