(c) The commission is authorized to seek in a court of competent jurisdiction an injunction, whether permanent or temporary, upon affidavit to prevent any person, business, corporation, or other legal entity from violating any provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated by the commission under the authority of this chapter. Such injunctions shall be issued without bond. The issuance of any injunction shall not preclude any criminal prosecution for violations of this chapter. The members of the commission, when acting in good faith, shall not be personally liable for any proceedings taken under this chapter.

(d) The commission is empowered, by majority vote, to issue subpoenas for witnesses, to require their attendance in the giving of testimony before it, and to require the production of books, papers, and records in any proceeding before the commission as may be pertinent to any questions lawfully before the commission. In case of failure or refusal on the part of any person to comply with any subpoena issued by the commission, or in case of the refusal of any witness to testify or answer as to any matter regarding which he may be lawfully interrogated, the circuit court of the county where the person is domiciled or is engaged in business or where the records are filed, on application of the commission, may issue an order to compel the person to comply with the subpoena and to attend before the commission and produce the documents and give his testimony upon matters, as may be lawfully required. Therefore, in order to conserve our natural water supply for the future, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, and this act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval.
