SECTION 7. EMERGENCY. It is hereby found and determined by the General Assembly that certain inequities have evolved through the years concerning the taxation of retirement income in this state; that such inequities have no just or sound basis; that it is in the best interest of the state of Arkansas to abolish all income tax exemptions permitted for retirement income and replace such exemptions with a more equitable tax credit; that this act should be given effect immediately to avoid continued potential legal costs to taxpayers under the current tax structure. Therefore, an emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Act being necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval.
