"21-3-202. Applicability. The prohibitions in this subchapter shall be limited to individuals who are at least forty (40) years of age.

21-3-203. Age discrimination prohibited - Exceptions.

(a) It shall be unlawful for a public employer:

(1) To fail or refuse to hire or to discharge any individual or otherwise discriminate against any individual with respect to his compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment because of the individual's age;

(2) To limit, segregate, or classify employees in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect his status as an employee because of the individual's age; or

(3) To reduce the wage rate of any employee in order to comply with this subchapter.

(b) It shall not be unlawful for a public employer:

(1) To take any action otherwise prohibited by this subchapter where age is a bona fide occupational qualification, reasonably necessary to the normal operation of the particular business, or where the differentiation is based on reasonable factors other than age; or

(2) To discharge or otherwise discipline an individual for good cause."

SECTION 2. Arkansas Code Section 21-3-205 is hereby amended to read as follows:

"21-3-205. Compulsory retirement of certain employees.

(a) (1) Nothing in this subchapter shall be construed to prohibit compulsory retirement of any employee who has attained sixty-five (65) years of age, and who, for the two-year period immediately before retirement, is employed in a bona fide executive or a high policy-making position if the employee is entitled to an immediate nonforfeitable annual retirement benefit from a pension, savings, or deferred compensation plan, or any combination of such plans, of the employer of the employee, which equals, in the aggregate, at least forty-four thousand ($44,000) dollars.

(2) In applying the retirement benefit test of subdivision (1) of this subsection, if any such retirement benefit is in a form other than a straight life annuity with no ancillary benefits, or if employees contribute to any such plan or make rollover contributions, that benefit shall be adjusted by the actuary of the employee's public retirement system, so that the benefit is the equivalent of a straight life annuity with no ancillary benefits under a plan to which employees do not contribute and under which no rollover contributions are made.

(b) The prohibitions of this subchapter shall apply to employees with unlimited tenure who retire after July 1, 1982."

SECTION 3. Arkansas Code 21-3-204 is hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. All provisions of this Act of a general and permanent nature are amendatory to the Arkansas Code of 1987 Annotated and the Arkansas Code Revision Commission shall incorporate the same in the Code.
