SENATE RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATING DEBBYE TURNER OF JONESBORO FOR BEING CROWNED
MISS AMERICA 1990.

WHEREAS, Miss Missouri, Debbye Turner, was crowned Miss America 1990 on September 16, 1989, at the Miss America Pageant held in Atlantic City, New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, Miss Turner, a native of Jonesboro, is a 1983 graduate of Jonesboro High School and attended Arkansas State University before attending the University of Missouri at Columbia, Missouri where she is a senior pursuing a degree in veterinary medicine; and

WHEREAS, Miss Turner is a well respected person who will be an excellent representative for the City of Jonesboro, the State of Arkansas as well as the nation; and

WHEREAS, one of her goals as Miss America is to talk to young people about the dangers of drugs and the importance of setting goals to be able to make the most of their lives; and

WHEREAS, the City of Jonesboro and the State of Arkansas are proud of Debbye Turner and her accomplishments, and she will be welcomed home as Miss America 1990 by her hometown of Jonesboro with a ceremony to be held on November 16, 1989;

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE SEVENTY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

THAT the Arkansas Senate hereby congratulates Debbye Turner of Jonesboro for being crowned Miss America 1990 and commends her for the outstanding example she is setting for today's young people.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that upon adoption of this resolution, the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to Debbye Turner, Miss America 1990.
