SECTION 3. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

SECTION 4. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 5. EMERGENCY. It is hereby found and determined by the General Assembly that the citizens of this state expect people serving as judges to be totally objective and nonpartisan in exercising their judicial authority; that under current law political parties nominate candidates for the several judgeships of this state; that in order to avoid the appearance of partisanship by our judges it is imperative that state law declare all judicial offices to be nonpartisan; and this act so provides and should be given effect immediately in order to avoid even the appearance of partisanship by judicial officers. Therefore, an emergency is hereby declared to exist and this act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval.
