17 except as such services are provided incident to the limited health services
18 set forth in the preceding sentence.

19

20 SECTION 4. Nonrenewal. (a) No health care insurer providing 21 coverage under any health benefit plan to a covered person shall cancel or 22 fail to renew such plan except for any of the following reasons:

- 23 (1) nonpayment of required premium;
- 24 (2) fraud or misrepresentation on the part of the covered person;
- 25 (3) noncompliance with the provisions of the plan.

26 (b) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent a health care 27 insurer from cancelling or not renewing the coverage of a covered person for 28 fraud or material misrepresentation to the extent allowed by law.

29

30 SECTION 5. Conversion privilege. (a) Any person who has been 31 continuously covered for at least ninety (90) days under a health benefit

4 be entitled to receive an individual conversion policy. Such request shall 5 be made within thirty one (31) days of loss of coverage. The premium for any 6 given period shall not exceed one hundred and thirty five percent (135%) of 7 the rate that would have been charged with respect to that person had the 8 person been covered as an employee under the plan during the same period.
9 When the plan under which such person was covered has been cancelled or not 10 renewed, the rates shall be based on the rate which would have been charged 11 to such person had the plan continued in force as determined by the health 12 care insurer in accordance with standard actuarial principles.

13 (b) Benefits provided under such conversion policy shall not be less 14 than the benefits provided under the health benefit plan. The health care 15 insurer may apply any benefits paid under the health benefit plan against the 16 benefits limits of the conversion policy provided that if it does so, it 17 shall also credit the covered person with any waiting period, deductible and 18 coinsurance to the extent credited under the health benefit plan.

19

20 SECTION 6. Portability. Except for underwriting considerations
21 relating to such persons_ health status, no health care insurer shall refuse 22 to accept for coverage, under a health benefit plan any person, who on the 23 date of application for such coverage would be eligible, provided such person 24 has, as of that date, been continuously covered under any employee welfare 25 benefit plan or other health insurance policy or health benefit plan, other 26 than any policy issued by or in connection with any state high risk insurance
27 pool for a period of one year. Nothing herein shall require such covered 28 person as a standard risk under the small employer health benefits plan or 29 greater than those that would have been provided under such prior coverage 30 had it remained in force. For the purpose of this section, a person shall be 31 deemed to be continuously covered for a period of one year if such person is 32 insured at the beginning and end of such period and has not had any lapse in 33 coverage during such period totaling more than thirty one (31) days.

34

35 SECTION 7. Premium Rates. (a) The premium rate charged in

1 connection with a health benefit plan shall be the same for all covered 2 persons with similar case characteristics covered under similar health
3 benefit plans. A health care insurer may adjust the premium charged to a 4 covered person in connection with the health benefit plan based upon the 5 claims experience, the health of persons covered under the health benefit 6 plan and the duration of coverage since the date of issue, provided that the 7 total premium shall not exceed two times the lowest premium charged to a 8 covered person with similar case characteristics.

10 percentage increase in the premium rate charged to covered persons may not 11 exceed the sum of:

13 similar case characteristics as measured between the first day of the 14 calendar year in which the new rates take effect and the first day of the 15 prior calendar year; plus

22 nature are amendatory to the Arkansas Code of 1987 Annotated and the Arkansas
23 Code Revision Commission shall incorporate the same in the Code.

24

25 SECTION 9. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to 26 any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect 27 other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without 28 the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this 29 act are declared to be severable.

30

31 SECTION 10. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are 32 hereby repealed.
