27 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:
28

29 SECTION 1. Arkansas Code § 6-61-112 is amended to read as follows:

30 6-61-112. ~~Students~~ A student or a student's spouse called into military 31 service.

32 (a) A student who ceases attendance at a state-supported postsecondary 33 educational institution without completing and receiving a grade in one (1) 34 or more courses ~~due to military activation or deployment~~ shall receive 35 compensation for the resulting monetary loss as provided under this section 36 if the student ceases attendance because:

1 (1) The student is activated or deployed by the military; or

2 (2) The student's spouse is activated or deployed by the 3 military and the student or the student's spouse has dependent children 4 residing in the household.

5 (b)(1) To be eligible for the compensation described under this 6 section, the student must provide, prior to activation or deployment, an 7 original or official copy of the military activation or deployment orders to 8 the registrar or other designated school official of the state-supported 9 postsecondary educational institution at which the student is enrolled at the 10 time of military activation or deployment.

11 (2) To be eligible for the compensation described under this 12 section, a student whose spouse is a service member shall provide proof of 13 registration with the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS)
14 of the Department of Defense that establishes that dependent children reside 15 in the household of the student and service member.

16 (c)(1) The student shall choose from one (1) of the following three 17 (3) compensatory options regarding tuition:

18 (A) A complete refund of tuition and general fees that are 19 assessed against all students at the institution;

20 (B) At least one (1) year to complete the course work
21 after the student's or student's spouse's deactivation; or

22 (C)(i) Free tuition for one (1) semester at the 23 institution where the student's attendance was interrupted unless federal aid 24 is made available to compensate the student for the resulting monetary loss 25 related to the student's or student's spouse's activation or deployment.

26 (ii) Federal aid shall not include Pell Grants,
27 other federal grants, or other monetary benefits paid to the student directly 28 or at the student's direction.

29 (iii) If a student or student's spouse is activated 30 or deployed during a semester, the student shall not receive more than one 31 (1) semester of free tuition under this subdivision (c)(1)(C).

32 (2) This subsection shall not allow a student to recover any 33 amount in excess of the student's actual monetary loss.

34 (d)(1) The student shall receive a proportionate refund of room, 35 board, and other fees that were paid to the institution based on the date of 36 the student's notice of withdrawal from the institution.

1 (2) If an institution contracts for room, board, or other
2 services from a third party, then the third-party contractor shall provide a 3 refund to the institution for the services or fees in an amount equal to the 4 student's monetary loss under subdivision (c)(1) of this section;

5 (e) The student shall receive the maximum price, based on condition,
6 for the textbooks related to the uncompleted courses if the institution has a 7 policy of repurchasing textbooks.

8 (f)(1) A student's eligibility for a state-supported scholarship,
9 grant, or loan for attendance at a postsecondary educational institution
10 shall not be affected by the student's failure to complete any course work 11 because of the student's or student's spouse's military activation or 12 deployment.

13 (2) The Department of Higher Education shall adopt the necessary
14 rules to ensure that state-supported scholarship, grant, and loan programs 15 comply with the provisions of this section.

16 (g)(1) For each fiscal year, each state-supported institution of 17 higher education in the state shall report the type and amount of 18 compensatory options provided under this section to the department.

19 (2) The department shall report to the House Interim Committee
20 on Aging, Children and Youth, Legislative and Military Affairs and the Senate 21 Interim Committee on Children and Youth regarding the type and amount of 22 compensatory options provided under this section by each state-supported
23 institution of higher education no later than October 1 of each year 24 beginning in 2006 and each year thereafter.
