1 of this state or in the state where he or she is employed. 2 (b) No assignment of or order for wages to be earned in the future shall be valid when made by a married man, unless the written consent of his 3 4 wife to making such assignment or order for wages shall be attached thereto. 5 6 SECTION 2. Arkansas Code § 11-4-301 is amended to read as follows: 7 11-4-301. Definition. 8 For the purpose of this subchapter, unless the context otherwise 9 requires, the term "labor" shall include all or any work or service performed 10 by any person employed for any period of time where when the wages or salary 11 or remuneration for the work or services is to be paid at stated intervals or 12 at the termination of the employment, or for physical work actually performed 13 by an independent contractor, provided that the amount in controversy does 14 not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) fifty percent (50%) of 15 the federal poverty guideline for a family of one in the State of Arkansas as 16 determined by the United States Department of Health and Human Services under 17 42 U.S.C. 9902(2) in effect on January 1, 2007, as determined by the United States Department of Health and Human Services. 18 19 20 SECTION 3. Arkansas Code § 11-4-401 is amended to read as follows: 21 § 11-4-401. Payment semimonthly Regular pay periods. 22 (a)(1) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, all 23 corporations doing business in this state who shall employ any salespersons, 24 mechanics, laborers, or other servants for the transaction of their business 25 shall pay the wages of the employees semimonthly. Every employer shall 26 establish and maintain regular pay periods as provided in this section and 27 shall communicate those pay periods, in advance, to all employees. 28 (2) Communication may be accomplished in writing or through a 29 posted notice maintained in a place accessible to employees. 30 Any corporation that shall, through its president or otherwise, 31 violate subsections (a) and (c) of this section shall be deemed guilty of a 32 misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than fifty 33 dollars ($50.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense. 34 Every employer shall pay all wages due to its employees at least semimonthly 35 and not later than eight (8) calendar days after the end of the pay period in 36 which such wages were earned.

1	(c) All corporations with an annual gross income of five hundred
2	thousand dollars ($500,000), or more, doing business in this state who shall
3	employ any salespersons, mechanics, laborers, or other servants for the
4	transaction of their business shall pay the wages of their management level
5	and executive employees who are exempt under the provisions of Section 213 of
6	the Fair Labor Standards Act, from the provisions of Sections 206 and 207 of
7	that act, and who are compensated at a gross rate in excess of twenty-five
8	thousand dollars ($25,000) per year, at a minimum of once each calendar month
9	Upon payment of wages, every employer shall provide an itemized statement of
10	deductions from wages.

12	SECTION 4. Arkansas Code § 11-4-402 is amended to read as follows:
13	11-4-402. Discount for advance payment — Payments made in currency
14	method of payment.
15	(a) It shall be unlawful for any milling or manufacturing company, or
16	any other person, corporation, or company employing persons to labor for them
17	in the State of Arkansas, employer to discount the wages of their its
18	employees or laborers when payment is made or demanded before the regular
19	paydays more than at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum from the date of
20	payment to the regular payday.
21	(b)(l)(A) The wages of all $\frac{All}{All}$ employees shall be paid in currency or
22	by check, $\Theta$ electronic direct deposit into the employee's account, or debit
23	card.
24	(B) An employer may not require that its employees accept
25	payment by electronic direct deposit or by debit card. Payment by either
26	method shall be made with the express written consent of the employee given
27	freely before the payment of wages. The employee may opt out of electronic
28	direct deposit by providing the employer a written statement requesting
29	payment by check.
30	(C)(i) Whatever the form of payment, wages shall be
31	payable in cash, on demand, without discount, at an established place of
32	business in the State of Arkansas.
33	(ii) If payment is made by check or debit card, the
34	name and address of the established place of business in the State of
35	Arkansas where payment is redeemable for cash shall appear on the instrument.

- 13 SECTION 5. Arkansas Code § 11-4-403 is repealed.
- 14 § 11-4-403. Payment by evidence of indebtedness.
- (a) It shall be unlawful for any corporation, company, firm, or person engaged in any trade or business in this state, either directly or indirectly, to issue, sell, give, or deliver to any person employed by the corporation, company, firm, or person, in payment of wages, whether the wages are earned or not, any scrip, token, draft, check, or other evidence of indebtedness payable or redeemable otherwise than in lawful money, at the next regular payday of the corporation, company, firm, or person.
  - (b) If the scrip, token, draft, check, or other evidence of indebtedness is issued, sold, given or delivered to the laborer, it shall be construed, taken, and held in all courts and places to be a promise to pay the sum specified therein in lawful money by the corporation, company, firm, or person issuing, selling, giving, or delivering the same to the person named therein or the holder thereof.
  - (c) The corporation, company, firm, or person issuing, selling, giving, or delivering the evidence of indebtedness in violation of subsection (a) of this section shall, moreover, be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and not more than one hundred dollars ($100). At the discretion of the court trying the action, the officer or agent of the corporation, company, firm, or person issuing, selling, giving, or delivering the evidence of indebtedness may be imprisoned not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) days.
  - (d) In any suit by any holder of the scrip, token, draft, check, or

- 1 other evidence of indebtedness or in any prosecution under the provisions of 2 this section, it shall not be required of the plaintiff in the suit or the 3 state in the prosecution to prove that the scrip, token, draft, check, or other evidence of indebtedness was sold, given, issued, or delivered by the 4 5 defendant in the suit or prosecution to any laborer or employee in payment of 6 wages of the laborer or employee. 7 (e) The provisions of this section do not apply to coal mines when 8 fewer than twenty (20) men are employed under the ground. 9 10 SECTION 6. Arkansas Code § 11-4-404 is repealed. 11 § 11-4-404. Payment by sale of goods or supplies. 12 (a) If any corporation, company, firm, or person shall coerce or 13 compel or attempt to coerce or compel any employee in its employment to 14 purchase goods or supplies in payment of wages, whether the wages are earned 15 or not, from any corporation, company, firm, or person, the first named 16 corporation, company, firm, or person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and 17 upon conviction shall be punished as provided in § 11-4-403. 18 (b) If any corporation, company, firm, or person shall directly or 19 indirectly sell to any employee in payment of wages, whether earned or not, 20 goods and supplies at prices higher than a reasonable or current market value 21 thereof in eash, the corporation, company, firm, or person shall be liable to 22 the employee in a civil action in double the amount of the charges made and paid for any goods and supplies in excess of the reasonable or current value 2.3 24 in cash thereof. 25 (c) The provisions of this section do not apply to coal mines when 26 fewer than twenty (20) men are employed under the ground. 27 28 SECTION 7. Arkansas Code § 11-4-405 is amended to read as follows: 29 11-4-405. Payment on discharge termination of employment.
- (a)(1) Whenever any railroad company or corporation or any receiver operating any railroad engaged in the business of operating or constructing any railroad or railroad bridge shall discharge, with or without cause, or refuse to further employ any servant or employee thereof, the unpaid wages of the servant or employee then earned at the contract rate, without abatement or deduction, shall be and become due and payable on the day of the discharge or refusal to longer employ.

(2) Any servant or employee may request of his foreman or the keeper of his or her time to have the money due him or her, or a valid cheek therefor, sent to any station where a regular agent is kept. If the money or a valid cheek therefor does not reach the station within seven (7) days from the date it is so requested, then, as a penalty for the nonpayment, the wages of the servant or employee shall continue from the date of the discharge or refusal to further employ at the same rate until paid. However, the wages shall not continue more than sixty (60) days unless an action therefor shall be commenced within that time. When an employer discharges an employee, the employer shall pay the employee his or her unpaid wages within three (3) calendar days of termination, excluding Saturday, Sunday, or legal holidays.

- (b) This section shall apply to all companies and corporations doing business in this state and to all servants and employees thereof. Any servants or employees who shall hereafter be discharged or refused further employment may request or demand the payment of any wages due and, if not paid within seven (7) days from discharge or refusal to longer employ, then the penalties provided in subdivision (a)(2) of this section for railway employees shall attach. When an employee resigns his or her employment, the employer shall pay the employee his or her unpaid wages no later than the day the employee would have otherwise been paid for those unpaid wages.
- of time and who is discharged without cause before the expiration of that time may, in addition to the penalties prescribed by this section, have an action against any employer for any damages he or she may have sustained by reason of the wrongful discharge, and the action may be joined with an action for unpaid wages and penalty. Regardless of whether the termination is voluntary or involuntary, the employer shall pay the employee's unpaid wages in the same form of payment as the last prior wage payment to the employee, unless the employee requests in writing on or before the date of termination to be paid by check at the employee's former work site, at the employer's local office, or by mail to the employee's last known mailing address.
- (d) No servant or employee who secretes or absents himself to avoid payment to him or her, or refuses to receive payment when fully tendered, shall be entitled to any benefit under this section for the time as he or she so avoids payment.
  - (1) For the purposes of this section, the final wages of an

1	employee who resigns or is discharged shall include any vacation pay or other
2	compensatory time that is owed to the employee by virtue of company policy or
3	labor agreement.
4	(2) This subsection (d) does not require employers to:
5	(A) Provide paid or unpaid vacations; or
6	(B) Establish written vacation pay policies.
8	SECTION 8. Arkansas Code Title 11, Chapter 4, subchapter 4 is amended
9	to add an additional section to read as follows:
10	11-4-406. Consent for wage deductions.
11	No employer shall make a deduction from an employee's wages, whether
12	final or otherwise, unless the deductions are:
13	(1) Required by law or court order;
14	(2) For health insurance, life insurance, retirement benefits,
15	or union dues; or
16	(3)(A) Made with the express written consent of the employee,
17	given freely at the time the deduction is made.
18	(B) The written consent shall specify a lawful purpose for
19	the deduction, identify the amount to be withheld, and clearly indicate that
20	the deduction is to be withheld from the employee's wages.
21
22	SECTION 9. Arkansas Code title 11, chapter 4, subchapter 4 is amended
23	to add an additional section to read as follows:
24	11-4-407. Remedies.
25	(a)(1) If an employer fails to comply with this subchapter, the
26	employee may recover, in a civil action, the wages due him or her, damages in
27	an amount equal to three (3) times the wages wrongfully withheld, costs, and
28	reasonable attorney's fee.
29	(2) However, the employer shall be liable only for costs and the
30	wages erroneously withheld if the employer shows by a preponderance of the
31	evidence that its noncompliance:
32	(A) Resulted from an error which occurred despite the
33	existence of procedures reasonably designed to avoid the error; or
34	(B) Was based on a good faith dispute as to the amount
35	due.
36	(b)(l)(A) In the alternative, an employee aggrieved under this

T	subchapter may instead, pursuant to § 11-4-301 et seq., apply to the Director
2	of the Department of Labor for relief.
3	(B) If the director determines that an employer has
4	violated this subchapter, the director may award any of the remedies set
5	forth in subsection (a) of this section.
6	(C) If the director determines that an employer has
7	violated this subchapter but that the aggrieved employee has suffered no loss
8	in wages, the director may subject the employer to a civil penalty of not
9	fewer than fifty dollars ($50.00) and not more than one thousand dollars
10	($1,000.00) for each violation.
11	(2) In making an award to an employee or in subjecting an
12	employer to a civil penalty, the director shall consider:
13	(A) The defenses in subsection (a)(2) of this section;
14	(B) The willfulness of the violation;
15	(C) The size of the employer; and
16	(D) The severity of the violation.
17	(c) No employer shall retaliate or otherwise discriminate against an
18	employee for making a complaint of a violation of this subchapter or
19	furnishing information concerning a violation to a person, an entity, or a
20	business or to an enforcement authority.
21	(d)(l) An employee aggrieved under this subchapter may bring an action
22	or file a claim with the Director of the Department of Labor pursuant to
23	Arkansas Code § 11-4-301 et seq. within one (1) year of the alleged
24	violation.
25	(2) The Director of the Department of Labor shall bring an
26	action based on a violation of this subchapter within one (1) year of a final
27	administrative determination concerning the alleged violation or three (3)
28	years of the occurrence of the alleged violation, whichever is later.
29
30	SECTION 10. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the
31	General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that the methods used by some
32	employers to provide wages are unfair and harmful to employees and that the
33	provisions of this act are necessary to guarantee prompt and fair payment of
34	wages to all employees throughout the state. Therefore, an emergency is
35	declared to exist and this act being immediately necessary for the
36	preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective

1	on.
2	(1) The date of its approval by the Governor;
3	(2) If the bill is neither approved nor vetoed by the Governor,
4	the expiration of the period of time during which the Governor may veto the
5	bill; or
6	(3) If the bill is vetoed by the Governor and the veto is
7	overridden, the date the last house overrides the veto.
