34		(iii)(a) It is not necessary
35	request a fitness-to-p	roceed examination if fitness to	proceed does not
36	appear to be an issue.

1	(b) An examiner shall not render an opinion or
2	issue a report on criminal responsibility if the examiner believes that the
3	defendant is not fit to proceed.
4	(c) In a case under subdivision (a)(l)(A)(ii)
5	of this section, the criminal responsibility examination shall be suspended
6	and the court notified immediately that there is a question as to the
7	defendant's fitness to proceed.
8	(B)(i) Any party or the court raises the issue of the
9	defendant's fitness to proceed.
10	(ii) The court shall order a fitness-to-proceed
11	examination if it finds there is a reasonable suspicion that a defendant is
12	not fit to proceed.
13	(2)(A) The fitness-to-proceed examination and the criminal
14	responsibility examination and request for an opinion on the defendant's
15	criminal responsibility are two distinctly different examinations.
16	(B) The fitness-to-proceed examination and the criminal
17	responsibility examination may be done at the same time only if the defendant
18	simultaneously raises the issue of the defendant's fitness to proceed and
19	files notice that he or she intends to rely upon the defense of mental
20	disease or defect.
21	(C) In all other cases the process is bifurcated.
22	(3)(A) A defendant shall not be found not guilty by reason of
23	mental disease or defect in the absence of proof of a mental disease or
24	defect.
25	(B) A court shall not order the Division of Behavioral
26	Health of the Department of Human Services to conduct a criminal
27	responsibility examination if a fitness-to-proceed examination has previously
28	determined that the defendant does not have a mental disease or defect unless
29	the requesting party can show reasonable cause to believe:
30	(i) There is evidence of a mental disease or defect
31	that was not fully considered in the previous criminal responsibility
32	examination; or
33	(ii) That the prior opinion that the defendant does
34	not have a mental disease or defect was based on information or facts later
35	shown to be false or unreliable.
36	(2)(A)(A)(A) If a trial jury has been impaneled and the court

1	(c) Defendant's attorney's name and address;
2	(d) Defendant's custody status;
3	(e) Case number; and
4	(f) Case number and a A unique identifying
5	number on the incident reporting form as required by the Arkansas Crime
6	Information Center . ; and
7	(g) The name of the requesting attorney.
8	(iii) The uniform evaluation order shall be utilized
9	any time that a defendant is ordered to be examined by the court pursuant to
10	this section, and a copy of the uniform evaluation order shall be forwarded
11	to the Director of the Department of Human Services or his or her designee.
12	(iv) No forensic examination under this subchapter
13	shall be conducted without using the $\underline{a}$ uniform evaluation order.
14	(v) Fitness-to-proceed and criminal responsibility
15	examination orders may be ordered at the same time in accordance with
16	subdivision (a)(1) of this section but they may not be combined into one (1)
17	uniform evaluation order and shall be tracked separately by the Division of
18	Behavioral Health of the Department of Human Services.
19	(B)(i) The Division of Behavioral Health of the Department
20	of Human Services shall maintain a database of all examinations of defendants
21	performed pursuant to this chapter subchapter .
22	(ii) The database shall be maintained in a manner to
23	enable it to generate reports and data compilations either with or without
24	personal identifying information.
25	(iii) A person examined or treated pursuant to this
26	subchapter shall be assigned an anonymous identifier that permits researchers
27	to determine how many times the criminal justice system is examining and
28	treating the same persons without making public the identity or personal
29	information of a person.
30	(ii)(a)(iv) At a minimum the database shall contain
31	the information on the uniform evaluation order as provided in subdivision
32	(b)(4)(A)(ii) of this section.:
33	(a) The information on the uniform evaulation
34	order as provided in subdivision (b)(4)(A)(ii) of this section;

2	the examination;
3	(d) The name of the examiner that conducted
4	the examination;
5	(e) The result of the examination;
6	(f) Whether there was a hearing or trial to
7	contest the examination's findings;
8	(g) If the defendant is found not fit to
9	proceed, whether the defendant was restored to fitness to proceed; and
10	(h) If the defendant is found not guilty by
11	reason of mental disease or defect, the defendant's progress through his or
12	her commitment and conditional release.
13	(v) The database should be designed in a manner that
14	allows the General Assembly, researchers, and the public to track the
15	efficiency and effectiveness of the examination process and the restoration
16	and treatment programs of the Division of Behavioral Health of the Department
17	of Human Services without invading the privacy of individual defendants and
18	patients.

2	(d)(1) A report of a forensic examination shall include the following:
3	(A) A description of the nature of the forensic
4	examination;
5	(B) A substantiated diagnosis in the terminology of the
6	American Psychiatric Association's current edition of the Diagnostic and
7	Statistical Manual;
8	(C) An opinion on whether the defendant lacks the capacity
9	to understand the proceedings against him or her and to assist effectively in
10	his or her own defense as a consequence of mental disease or defect;
11	(D) A description of any evidence that the defendant is
12	feigning a sign or symptom of mental disease or defect;
13	(E)(i) An opinion as to whether the defendant has the
14	capacity to understand the proceedings against him or her and to assist
15	effectively in his or her own defense.
16	(ii) If the opinion under subdivision (d)(l)(E)(i)
17	of this section is that the defendant has the capacity to understand the
18	proceedings and to effectively assist in his or her own defense, then the
19	examiner shall further examine the defendant and include in the report of the 20	forensic examination an opinion as to the extent, if any, to which the
21	capacity of the defendant to appreciate the criminality of his or her conduct
22	or to conform his or her conduct to the requirements of law was impaired at
23	the time of the conduct alleged.
24	(iii) An opinion under subdivision (d)(l)(E)(i) or
25	(d)(l)(E)(ii) of this section shall also include a description of the
26	reasoning used by the examiner to support the opinion; and
27	(F)(i) When directed by the court, an opinion as to the
28	capacity of the defendant to have the culpable mental state that is required
29	to establish an element of the offense charged.
30	(ii) An opinion under subdivision (d)(l)(F)(i) of
31	this section shall also include a description of the reasoning used by the
32	examiner to support the opinion.
33	(2) In addition to the information required in subdivision
34	(d)(l) of this section, the report of the forensic examination shall include
35	a separate explanation of:
36	(A) The sign or symptom of mental disease or defect that

1	led to the opinion on the presence of mental disease or defect; and
2	(B) The evidence that supports the opinion of the examiner
3	on the capacity of the defendant to understand the proceedings against him or
4	her and the defendant's capacity to assist in his or her own defense.
5	(d)(l) An examiner's report under this subchapter shall include:
6	(A) A description of the nature of the examination;
7	(B) A description of any evidence that the defendant is
8	feigning a sign or symptom of mental disease or defect;
9	(C) A specific description of the signs or symptoms of
10	mental disease or defect if in the opinion of the examiner the defendant has
11	a mental disease or defect; and
12	(D) A substantiated diagnosis in the terminology of the
13	American Psychiatric Association's current edition of the Diagnostic and
14	Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders.
15	(2) In addition to the information in subdivision (d)(l) of this
16	section, a report of a fitness-to-proceed examination shall specifically
17	include an opinion on whether the defendant lacks the capacity to understand
18	the proceedings against him or her and to assist effectively in his or her
19	own defense as a consequence of mental disease or defect and an explanation
20	of the examiner's opinion and the basis of the opinion.
21	(3) In addition to the information in subdivision (d)(l) of this
22	section, a report of a criminal responsibility examination shall include the
23	following:
24	(A) An opinion as to whether as the result of a mental
25	disease or defect the defendant at the time of the alleged criminal conduct
26	lacked the capacity to appreciate the criminality of his or her conduct or to
27	conform his or her conduct to the requirements of law and an explanation of
28	the examiner's opinion and the basis of the opinion; and
29	(B) An opinion as to the capacity of the defendant to have
30	the culpable mental state that is required to establish an element of the
31	offense charged with an explanation of the examiner's opinion and the basis
32	of the opinion.
33	(e) If a forensic an examination cannot be conducted because of the
34	unwillingness of the defendant to participate in the forensic examination,
35	the report of the forensic examination shall so state and shall include, if possible, an opinion as to whether the unwillingness of the defendant is the result of mental disease or defect.

2 (f)(1) A person designated to perform a forensic an examination shall 3 file the report of the forensic examination with the clerk of the court, and 4 the clerk of the court shall mail a copy to the defense attorney and a copy 5 to the prosecuting attorney.

6 (2) Upon entry of an order by a circuit court, a copy of the 7 report of the forensic examination concerning a defendant shall be provided 8 to the circuit court by the person designated to perform the forensic 9 examination.

10 (g)(1) Notwithstanding the provision of any statute enacted prior to 11 January 1, 1976, any existing medical or pertinent record in the custody of a 12 public agency shall be made available to the examiner and counsel to the 13 prosecuting attorney and the defendant's attorney for inspection and copying.

14 (2) The court shall require the prosecuting attorney to provide
15 to the examiner any information relevant to the forensic examination, 16 including, but not limited to:

- 17 (A) The name and address of any attorney involved in the18 matter;
- (B) Information about the alleged offense; and
  (C) Any information about the defendant's background that is deemed relevant to the forensic examination, including the criminal
- 22 history of the defendant.

(3) The court may require the attorney for the defendant to provide any available information relevant to the forensie examination, including, but not limited to, a:

- 26 (A) Psychiatric record;
- 27 (B) Medical record; or

28 (C) Record pertaining to treatment of the defendant for29 substance or alcohol abuse.

(h)(1) When a forensie an examination of a defendant has been completed, the county from which the defendant had been sent for the forensie examination shall procure the defendant within three (3) working days from the Arkansas State Hospital or from a designated receiving facility or program or other facility where the forensic examination was performed.
(2) If the county fails to procure the defendant within this

36 three-day period, the county shall bear any room or board costs on the fourth

1 and subsequent days.

2 (i) A person under commitment and supervision of the Department of 3 Correction who is a defendant charged in circuit court shall not undergo an 4 examination or observation conducted by a psychiatrist or other mental health 5 employee of the Department of Correction to determine the mental condition of 6 the defendant.

(j)(1) A person or entity that provides treatment under this 8 subchapter may impose a charge for the cost of the treatment.

9 (2) A charge for costs under subdivision (j)(1) of this section 10 may not exceed the actual cost of the treatment.

11 (3)(A) The Division of Behavioral Health of the Department of 12 Human Services shall promulgate rules establishing reasonable charges for 13 costs of treatment under this subchapter.

14 (B) Rules establishing reasonable charges for costs of 15 treatment under this subchapter shall:

16 (i) Provide for postponing the collection of the 17 charges based on clinical considerations or the patient's inability to pay, 18 or both; and 19 (ii) Waive charges for treatment of defendants who 20 plead guilty or nolo contendere or are found guilty at trial.

21 (k) An examination report required to be filed with the clerk of the 22 court under this subchapter is a public record.

23 (1) This subchapter does not preclude the defendant from having a 24 fitness-to-proceed examination or a criminal responsibility examination 25 conducted by a defense expert or from maintaining the defense of not guilty 26 by reason of mental disease or defect using testimony from a defense expert

27 or other evidence.
