3 21-5-1302. Participation in tuition savings program.

4 (a) When a state employee begins his or her employment with an agency,
5 the agency shall notify the state employee that:

6 (1) The tuition savings program is available; and

7 (2) The employee may have a regular distribution made to the 8 tuition savings program from his or her salary before the state employee
9 receives his or her payroll deposit or pay check.

10 (b)(1) Upon request of the state employee, the agency charged with the 11 duty to distribute the state employee's salary may withhold, by agreement
12 with the state employee, an amount of money from the state employee's salary
13 each payday for deposit into the employee's tuition savings program.

14 (2) The amount withheld from the state employee's salary shall 15 be designated by the state employee.

16 (3) The agency that enters an agreement under this subsection
17 shall deposit the money withheld from the state employee's salary into the 18 state employee's tuition savings program at the time the state employee's 19 salary is distributed to the state employee.
