32 (b) None of the provisions of this subchapter shall affect the right 33 of a coroner or a justice of the peace to hold the dead body as described 34 under § 20-17-703 for the purpose of investigating the cause of death, nor 35 shall this subchapter affect the right of any court of competent jurisdiction
36 from entering an order affecting the disposition of the body.

1
2 20-17-702. Search for next of kin.

3 (a)(1) The person who assumes original and lawful possession, charge,
4 or control of any body as described in this subchapter shall conduct a 5 diligent search for relatives or next of kin of the deceased, or that person 6 shall request the county sheriff or such other person as may be required by 7 law to conduct the search.

8 (2) The person conducting the search under subdivision (a)(1) of 9 this section shall make every effort to find the spouse, if any, of the 10 deceased.

11 (3) ~~However, if~~ If the person conducting the search is not 12 satisfied that the putative spouse is, in fact, a legal spouse, or it is 13 determined that no spouse exists, then every effort shall be made to find the 14 parents and siblings, if any, of the deceased.

15 (b) If the identity of the deceased is not known, the investigation 16 shall include, but not be limited to, the taking of fingerprints and sending 17 the fingerprint records to the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, 18 D.C., for identification and filing.
