24 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:
25

26 SECTION 1. Arkansas Code Title 5, Chapter 4, Subchapter 2, is amended 27 to add an additional section to read as follows:

28 5-4-208. Child support as restitution for surviving dependent child of 29 victim of certain homicide offenses.

30 (a) As used in this section, "dependent child" means a person less 31 than twenty (20) years of age who is the surviving natural child, adopted 32 child, or stepchild of a homicide victim.

33 (b)(1) A defendant convicted of a homicide offense under § 5-10-101 et 34 seq. may be ordered to pay reasonable child support as restitution for the 35 benefit of a dependent child of the homicide victim if at the trial for the 36 homicide offense the defendant is shown beyond a reasonable doubt to have

1 been driving or boating while intoxicated under § 5-65-103 at the time the 2 event causing the homicide occurred.

3 (2) For a circuit court to issue an order requiring a defendant
4 to pay reasonable child support under this section, the state shall:

5 (A) Allege facts in the information or indictment 6 supporting an order under this section; and

7 (B) Specify that an order under this section is being 8 sought.

9 (b) Reasonable child support ordered under this section shall expire
10 as each dependent child listed in the information or indictment reaches 11 twenty (20) years of age.

12 (c) If the requirements of subsections (a) of this section are met, a 13 circuit court shall determine reasonable child support for the necessary 14 maintenance of a dependent child under this section after considering all 15 relevant factors, including without limitation:

16 (1) The financial needs and resources of the dependent child;

17 (2) The financial resources and needs of the surviving parent or 18 the guardian of the dependent child, including the state if the dependent 19 child is in the custody of the Department of Human Services;

20 (3) The standard of living to which the dependent child is 21 accustomed;

22 (4) The physical and emotional condition of the dependent child;

23 (5) The dependent child's educational needs;

24 (6) The dependent child's physical and legal custody 25 arrangements; and

26 (7) The reasonable work-related childcare expenses of the 27 surviving parent or the guardian of the dependent child.

28 (d)(1) In an order for reasonable child support under this section, 29 the circuit court shall require the payments for the reasonable child support 30 to be made to the circuit court clerk for remittance to the dependent child's 31 surviving parent or guardian.

32 (2) After receiving the payments under subdivision (d)(1) of 33 this section, the circuit court clerk shall:

34 (A) Deposit the payments no later than the next business 35 day after receipt of the payments; and

36 (B) Remit the payments to the surviving parent or the

1 guardian of the dependent child within ten (10) business days of receipt of 2 the payments by the circuit clerk.

3 (e)(1) If a defendant who is ordered to pay reasonable child support
4 under this section is incarcerated and unable to pay the required reasonable 5 child support, then the defendant shall have up to one (1) year after his or 6 her release from incarceration to begin payment of the reasonable child 7 support, including entering into a payment plan to address any arrearage of 8 the reasonable child support.

9 (2) If the reasonable child support ordered under this section 10 is set to terminate but the obligation has not been paid in full, then the 11 reasonable child support under this section shall continue until the entire 12 obligation is paid.

13 (f)(1) If a surviving parent or guardian of a dependent child brings a 14 civil action for monetary damages against a defendant subject to this section 15 and obtains a judgment for monetary damages in the civil action, then 16 reasonable child support shall not be ordered under this section.

17 (2) If a circuit court orders reasonable child support under 18 this section and the surviving parent or the guardian of the dependent child 19 subsequently brings a civil action for monetary damages and obtains a 20 judgment for monetary damages in the civil action, then the reasonable child 21 support under this section shall be offset by the amount of the monetary 22 damages awarded in the civil action.
