13 Subtitle

14 TO REMEMBER BRENT RENAUD AND TO RECOGNIZE 15 HIS CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE STATE OF 16 ARKANSAS AND FILMMAKING.

17
18 WHEREAS, Brent Renaud was born on October 2, 1971, in Memphis, 19 Tennessee, and died on March 13, 2022; and

20
21 WHEREAS, Brent Renaud was killed in Ukraine when Russian troops opened 22 fire, according to Andriy Nebytov, the head of Kyiv's regional police force; 23 and

25 WHEREAS, Ukraine President Volodymyr Zelenskyy wrote: "A talented and 26 brave journalist, Brent lost his life while documenting human tragedy, 27 devastation, and suffering of millions of Ukrainians."; and

28
29 WHEREAS, Brent Renaud was a loving son, brother, uncle, friend, and 30 award-winning documentary filmmaker who grew up in Little Rock, Arkansas; and

31
32 WHEREAS, Brent Renaud graduated from Hall High School, received his 33 undergraduate degree from Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas, and 34 a master's degree from Columbia University in New York, New York; and

35
36 WHEREAS, Brent with his younger brother Craig, known as the Renaud

1 Brothers, co-founded 501 Films, a small film company that won many national 2 and international awards for their documentaries about human suffering around 3 the world; and

4
5 WHEREAS, Brent and Craig also co-founded the Little Rock Film Festival
6 and the Arkansas Motion Picture Institute; and

7
8 WHEREAS, Brent and Craig made films for HBO, NBC, Discovery, PBS, The 9 New York Times, VICE News, and others, and their film, "Last Chance High," an 10 eight-part series for VICE Media won a Peabody Award, the most prestigious 11 prize broadcast journalists can receive; and

12
13 WHEREAS, Brent and Craig, in collaboration with Christof Putzel, won a 14 DuPont-Columbia Award for "Vanguard: Arming the Mexican Cartel", and when 15 Christof Putzel learned of his close friend's death, he told WGBH Boston:
16 "Brent had courage like nobody I've ever seen, yet at the same time had this 17 heart to go in where he knew he was needed, and he was so incredibly careful 18 and focused. I don't know many people who can do that."; and

19
20 WHEREAS, Brent Renaud was known as quiet, humble, brilliant, kind, and 21 a hardworking filmmaker; and

22
23 WHEREAS, Brent was a Neiman Fellow in 2019 at Harvard University and 24 Neiman curator Ann Marie Lipinski said: "Brent's filmmaking was exceptional 25 and what made it so was not just his abundant skill but a kindness and deep 26 humanity he brought to his work. He told us that what he sought in his 27 journalism was thoughtful stories about disenfranchised people, and he lived 28 up to that credo every day. His death is a devastating loss"; and

29
30 WHEREAS, at Harvard University, Brent studied the effects of trauma and 31 mental and emotional illness on rates of poverty and violence in America; and

32
33 WHEREAS, Brent Renaud was a visiting distinguished professor for the 34 Center for Ethics in Journalism at the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville 35 in 2019; and

36

1 WHEREAS, "Brent Renaud [was] widely respected as a photojournalist and 2 documentary filmmaker," said Larry Foley, chair of the University of Arkansas
3 School of Journalism and Strategic Media; and 4

5 WHEREAS, Brent Renaud's 2015 short documentary "Between Borders:
6 American Migrant Crisis", helped bring a new level of awareness to the youth
7 migrant crisis in Central America, and his award-winning 2018 feature film
8 "Shelter" has raised millions of dollars to combat the youth homeless crisis
9 in New Orleans, Louisiana; and 10

11 WHEREAS, Raymond McCaffrey, director of the Center for Ethics in 12 Journalism, said that Brent Renaud possessed unique journalistic skills that 13 are especially valuable in today's changing media environment and he 14 considered Brent "especially qualified to teach students about the power of 15 multimedia journalism as well as the ethical challenges that journalists can 16 face when using new technology to help report the news"; and 17

18 WHEREAS, in recognition of the many contributions Brent Renaud brought 19 to Arkansas and the filmmaking industry, Brent's family and friends started 20 the Brent Renaud Foundation as a means of continuing his vision; and 21

22 WHEREAS, Brent Renaud sacrificed his life to bring awareness of the war
23 in Ukraine, and his loss will never be forgotten,
24

25 NOW THEREFORE,

26 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL
27 ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:
28

29 THAT the House of Representatives remember Brent Renaud for his service 30 and dedication to the State of Arkansas and the filmmaking industry and 31 extend sincere condolences to the family.
32

33 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT upon adoption, a copy of this resolution be 34 provided to Brent Renaud's family by the Chief Clerk of the House of 35 Representatives.
